

Health and Diet - Jan 10, 2005

Be proactive about your health! Your family history counts! If there is a history of diabetes, heart disease or hypertension in your family, you may be at higher risk for developing these conditions. It is important to eat healthy, maintain a healthy weight and visit a medical professional regularly. Preventative medicine is the BEST medicine.