

Health and Diet - Nov 22, 2004

Frozen meals can be a quick and healthful option if selected carefully. Choose frozen dinners that have less than 800 milligrams of sodium, 15 grams of fat and 400 calories. Add a salad or vegetable to the meal for extra vitamins and minerals. Serve with a glass of skim milk or yogurt to increase your calcium intake.